

Should Communities Set Teen Curfews?

Genre: Magazine Opinion Piece

The author argues that curfews are necessary today because, unlike in the past, too many parents don't control their children. Curfews not only can prevent teens from getting into trouble, but they also can reduce crime in downtown areas.

Curfews: A National Debate

Genre: Persuasive Commentary

According to this commentary, there are many reasons why cities should not pass curfew laws. For example, they are not effective. They punish the innocent and interfere with teens' rights. They also interject government where it doesn't belong.