

Be-ers and Doers

Genre: Short Story

There are two kinds of people in Adelaide's family. Her mother and sister get things done, but her father and brother Albert are content to leave well enough alone. When the home catches fire, Albert proves that he can accomplish more than anyone.

My Moment of Truth

Genre: Magazine Article

Olympic gold medalist Dominique Dawes was happiest when she stopped competing in gymnastics. Jazz musician Wynton Marsalis didn't like jazz but continued playing anyway. This article examines the turning point in each of their lives.