

Excerpt from Romeo and Juliet

Genre: Play

In the classic balcony scene, Romeo privately declares his love for Juliet, who, believing herself alone, speaks lovingly of Romeo. When Juliet discovers Romeo, he expresses his love for her again. A modern adaptation is set alongside the original.

Sonnet 30/I Am Offering This Poem

Genre: Poems

Two poems explore the meaning and importance of love. In the sonnet, love is the most important of life's necessities. In the second poem, a man with nothing offers his love to a woman, declaring that love is the one thing a person truly needs to live.